

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 1923-49.

G. P. Halferty.

Snug Harbor, Chisik Island.

December 20, 1922.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, G. P. Halferty, whose home office is at Aberdeen, Washington, is hereby authorized to locate and operate a floating cannery in the vicinity of Snug Harbor, Chisik Island, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate, pending further investigations, on any of the clam beds in Cook Inlet, except for two miles of beach each side of the mouth of Paulie Creek, where the Polar Fisheries Company alone has permission to continue operations.
2. That the pack of clams shall not exceed twenty-thousand cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
